

General conditions of contract for the supply of goods & services

1 General

- (a) Agreement: The documents listed in clause 1(b) ("Precedence of Contract Documents") comprise the Contract Documents and collectively set out the entire Contract between us and you. Under the Contract you agree to provide the Goods and/or Services to us and we agree to accept the Goods and/or Services from you. The Contract supersedes all previous arrangements between us and you in relation to the supply of the Goods and/or Services.
- (b) Precedence of Contract Documents:
- (1) The Contract Documents must be read in the following order of precedence:
 - (A) our Purchase Order;
 - (B) these General Conditions of Contract; and
 - (C) Your proposal.
 - (2) If you are a Small Business, clause 7 applies to the Contract and prevails over any other terms outlined in these General Conditions of Contract.
- (c) Inconsistency: If a provision of a Contract Document is inconsistent with one or more of the other Contract Documents, then the Contract Document lower in the order of precedence must be read down to resolve the inconsistency. If the inconsistency remains unresolved, the inconsistent provision/s must be severed from the Contract Document lower in the order of precedence but this will not diminish the enforceability of the remaining provisions of that Contract Document.
- (d) Deemed acceptance: By accepting our Purchase Order, you accept the terms of the Contract Documents.
- (e) Definitions: Some terms have particular meanings in these General Conditions of Contract and these meanings are set out in clause 9.2 ("Definitions").

2 Pricing and payment

- (a) Pricing:
- (1) Unless stated otherwise in our Purchase Order, the Contract Price is firm.
 - (2) If the Contract Documents state that the Contract Price is variable, you may only increase the Contract Price by giving us at least 30 days' written notice containing full details of the variation including all information regarding the cost of materials, direct labour, overheads, rise and fall, exchange rates, profit and such other cost components as we may require to verify the claim for variation. We may accept or reject the variation. You may not increase the Contract Price until 21 days after we give you a written notice stating that we accept the increased Contract Price. If we reject the increased Contract Price, we may elect not to proceed with the purchase of the Goods and/or Services ordered before the date of the increased Contract Price but which are intended to be subject to the increased Contract Price.
 - (3) If you offer a public authority a lower price for a Good or Service, you must also offer the same price to us.
 - (4) The Contract Price includes all Fees. You must supply us with any information that we may request about these Fees within 7 days of our request.
 - (5) Where permitted under the law or any authorisation, we may exchange any information relating to the Contract or our relationship with you (including information relating to the Contract Price) with a third party. However, we will at all times deal with Personal Information that relates to you or your Employees in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

(b) Payment:

- (1) If you perform the Services and/or provide the Goods to our satisfaction, we will pay you for the Goods and/or Services by the later of:
 - (A) 31 days after the end of the month in which our specified accounts payable department receives your correct tax invoice; and
 - (B) 31 days after the end of the month in which we accept the Goods in accordance with clause 3.3(i).
- (2) Each tax invoice and credit note must specify our relevant Purchase Order number and a correct statement of the Goods and/or Services to which that tax invoice or credit note relates.
- (3) We may pay the Contract Price to you by cash, cheque or by electronic funds transfer.
- (4) If we do not pay you within these times, you must give us written notice of our failure to do so. You cannot terminate the Contract if we do not pay you within these times and you cannot charge us interest or charges for any late payments.
- (5) If the Contract allows us to pay you by progressive instalments, we may defer the payment of an instalment until:
 - (A) you have provided that part of the Service; and/or
 - (B) we have Accepted those Goods, to which that instalment relates.
- (6) We may deduct any money that you owe us from any money that we owe you.
- (7) We may suspend our payment of the Contract Price if you do not perform any of your obligations under the Contract.
- (8) We do not have to pay you unless we have Accepted the Goods and/or Services. If we do pay you before we have Accepted the Goods and/or Services, then you must hold that payment on trust for us until we have Accepted the Goods and/or Services.
- (9) You must approve or decline each Credit Request within 14 days of receiving that Credit Request. If you do not approve or decline a Credit Request within 14 days you will be deemed to have approved that Credit Request. If you decline a Credit Request you must provide us with reasons for your decision.

(c) GST:

- (1) Words or expressions defined in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) have the same meaning in this clause 2.
- (2) All sums payable under the Contract, unless specifically described as "GST inclusive", do not include GST.
- (3) If GST is imposed on any supply made under the Contract, the recipient must pay to the supplier an amount equal to the GST payable on the taxable supply. This amount must be paid in addition to, and at the same time as, payment for the taxable supply.
- (4) The supplier must provide the recipient of the supply with a valid tax invoice at or before the time of payment.
- (5) If the amount of GST paid or payable by the supplier on any supply made under the Contract differs from the amount of GST paid by the recipient, because the Commissioner of Taxation lawfully adjusts the value of the taxable supply for the purpose of calculating GST, then the amount of GST paid by the recipient will be adjusted accordingly by a further payment by the recipient to the supplier or the supplier to the recipient, as the case requires.
